LOGAN, W. Va., Sept. 2 .- The bodles of two men killed in the fighting on Blair Mountain yesterday were brought here to-day. They were members of the attacking forms, the authorities said, but their identity was not disclosed

Firing was resumed a short time before noon from a machine gun along Crooked Creek. The delenders said they had been unable to locate it.

The first detachment of Federa troops to reach Logan was expected e' noon. It was said to consist of a radio company. Preparations, however, were made for a much jarger force, which, county officers said. they were expecting before the day
